Describe Changed Relationships: Description of relationship changes after their NDEs

This page contains 501 near-death experiences (NDEs) with narrative responses to the NDERF survey question in the title above.

Methodology:

Experiences were scored as NDEs if they met all of the following:

1. A lucid, organized experience occurring at the time of a life-threatening event so severe that there is unconsciousness or clinically apparent death with an absent heartbeat.
2. An NDE Scale score of 7 or higher.
3. Shared by the individual who personally had the NDE.
4. Shared in the English version of the NDERF survey.

These are NDEs from the most recent version of the NDERF survey (nderf.org). They are sequentially shared non-English NDEs shared from November 11, 2011 to April 8, 2021. All accounts were scored as NDEs if they met the above criteria and regardless of experience content to avoid bias in studying the content of the NDEs.

The NDEs posted on the NDERF website are edited to correct obvious spelling and grammar errors. As remarkable as the NDEs are in this list, please remember that they accurately represent the real experiences of near-death experiencers (NDErs) from all walks of life and around the world. NDErs that declined to have their experiences posted are excluded from this compilation.

This list is public domain and may be used by anyone.

Substantial efforts are made to minimize the risk of posting fraudulent NDE accounts on nderf.org:
<https://www.nderf.org/Hub/hmethodology.htm>

We strive for accuracy in this list. If any NDEs should not be included for any reason, please email us at nderf@nderf.org with the NDE registry number and URL. Thanks!

This is a compilation of responses to the NDERF survey question, “Have your relationships changed specifically as a result of your experience?” This was followed by a box for a narrative response asking “If yes or uncertain, please describe.” The ‘Describe Changed Relationships’ column below is the data from the NDERF survey without changing any spelling or grammar errors. Even a quick review of the NDEs below should demonstrate that there are varied and often substantial changes in the NDErs’ relationships following their NDEs.

6102	John R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1john_r_nde_6102.html	Shortly after the auto accident, my marriage at that time, was not going well. She was developing a closer relationship with her musical partner, than was suited for a monogamous marriage. It reached a combustion point, at which time I knew that I must leave the relationship immediately. I believe I gained a stronger inner sense of myself, from the experience of the accident, that allow me to take the steps to end the marriage, and I moved out of the house the very next day. I would say it has made me more resilient in the face of disappointment.
6106	DW NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1dw_nde.html	Hard to find those that can understand a different way of seeing the world than the one they were raised with...acceptance of my experience is rare. They still lean toward thinking I'm a nice nut...

6119	Shannon T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1shannon_t_nde.html	I am certain that the gossip mills are running at full speed at work since I have taken an extended sick leave to be away from the place. I just don't care anymore because I don't feel I have to impress anyone anymore.
6120	Karen NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1karen_nde_6120.html	Some people I try not to be around now. I avoid negative energy in people. Some are family members. I am closer to some people, but that could be because everyone thought I was going to die.
6124	Paige M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1paige_m_nde.html	My best friend and I became a lot closer as a result.
6125	Sandy D NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1sandy_d_nde.html	totally disconnected

6141	Harold R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1harold_r_nde.html	Hard to say what my relationships would have been like. I'm sure it changed how my parents raised me. I know we didn't regularly attend church prior to this event and became regulars afterward.

			before. I try to love others as unconditionally as I felt loved throughout the experiences.
6167	Michael L NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1michael_l_nde.html	I WANT TO HELP PEOPLE ANYWAY I CAN, HELP THEM BELIEVE, ADORE, TRUST AND LOVE GOD
6168	Jack M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jack_m_nde_6168.html	People can't help but treat you differently. Most think you're brain damaged, or just crazy. This makes you treat them differently as well. Over time, they forget (if you let them) and it's not as much of an issue. On the positive side, you have greater compassion for those around you.
6176	Carmen J NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1carmen_j_nde.html	I saw how emotionally he got over this.. I saw how i responded when i heard him yelling at me...like guilty?? 6181	Steve N NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1steve_n_nde.html	I don't know what it would have been like NOT to have the experience, because I was so young. But I can speculate that if I did not have the first experience, I would not have known how to find the doorway to the second one.
6238	Mindy T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1mindy_t_nde.html	I am very accepting of people now. The way they are I no longer feel the need to change. IF there is an altercation I can stay calm and be accepting of their feelings and emotions without feeling like I have been personally attacked.
6283	Lisa K NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1lisa_k_nde.html	My husband and son are very supportive, attentive and nurturing and a little possessive of my care and ongoing medical issues. There are also alot or anger towards the whole decision to do the procedure in the first place.
6308	Carole M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1carole_m_nde.html	I am confused by people now in how they view things that I may have viewed in the same way before but its been a little difficult to be the same as I was in terms of what I believe in now and how I feel guilty that I had this comeback and others havent. I do feel alot of survivor guilt because of the proximity of my sons wifes death and my experience.

6184	Trisha S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1trisha_s_nde.html	Initially, I was more loving, but then I grew depressed because I didn't want to be here. But then I finally grew to understand why I had to be here and what I needed to do, and while I may not be ecstatic to be earthbound, at least I'm content, especially knowing that I'm helping other people understand that death isn't something to be afraid of, and it isn't the end.
6195	Laura B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1laura_b_nde.html	I don't know but I know I have always felt kind of different than others. I am lonely and long for something that I cannot find here on earth.

6196	Lacy NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1lacy_nde.html	I was only 5. Im not sure.
6197	Earl M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1earl_m_nde.html	I feel totally isolated. I am not just a world traveller, I am one of the rare few who has crossed over the Rivers Styx and Acheron, and returned...who can you share this experience with? On the other hand, I am much more open and caring with my (young adult) daughter, but those people who are petty and small, I have no time or patience for them.
6200	James N NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1james_n_nde.html	i treat people, animals, every living object on earth with warmth compassion..
6205	Isabel R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1isabel_r_nde.html	I realize the importance of relationships and that the meaning and purpose of my life is connected to this.
6206	Maia S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1maia_s_nde.html	In a most unfortunate way really, i feel alot more spiritual and as a result somewhat distanced to the people i was especially close to.
6213	Shea B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1shea_b_nde.html	I was only 21 when this happened. I had a baby, got pregnant with another one, when I wasn't supposed to for my health's sake, when I went on the pill. I had health issues because of the car accident. I had more children, I had a husband, a family to raise. I sometimes wonder, though, if when we die, we become so much a part of God, so caught up in God that we don't recognize each other. That makes me sad. I am hoping that I will know everyone I love when I die.
6221	Veronica M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1veronica_m_nde.html	I am rather a loner. I enjoy solitude. I have a need for depth of love in a significant relationship, but I do not need to be surrounded by large numbers of friends or loved ones to be content. The greatest love that I have ever known has come from my beloved cat Nicholas. I seem to have an innate ability to communicate and commune lovingly with all animals. People seem to want to be with me, and have said that I make them feel loved and accepted. I have also been told that I am not like other people, but infact that I am different and special. A rare individual. I maintain the ability to find the good in everyone that I meet.
6227	Herman V NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1herman_v_nde.html	Far less tolerant of toxic relationships. I have ended friendships with people when I realized they were sucking the life energy out of me. My marriage also suffered as a result of the things revealed to me on the other side and I am now separated as I am unwilling to live in a relationship which drains my life energy and causes me anger.
6233	Jenneane E NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jenneane_e_nde.html	I feel like in my romantic relationships that it is wrong for me to be in a lust relationship. I explain this to people who want to touch me intimately for sex with no love in their heart to me to make a commitment of true love. I have been in many relationships with sex and no love or commitment and I put up walls now. I will not be in that kind of situation. One day I hope to find true committed love with someone because I have never had that. Lust destroys my heart and my health and I feel it is hate. I want a man to love me and commit only to me so that the plants will grow and life will be happier. I am content to be single but I would like to increase the love energy of the planet in a positive way.

6240	Nancy T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1nancy_t_nde_6240.html	For the most part, I see the best in people. I have the feeling (because of my experience that we are all ONE and as such, everyone is doing the best they can with the role they have been given (or chosen)

6242	Frances Z NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1frances_z_nde.html	My children have never felt the pain of abuse, My husband and I are extremely close and I feel what he feels. My friends realize I am a ginunine person and if I say I will do something unless some that I can't control happens I usually do it.
6244	Steve L NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1steve_l_nde.html	I am changing so things around me change.....
6246	Natalie S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1natalie_s_nde.html	Maybe I'm more tolerant, patient. I'm fundamentally happier or more content, so that necessarily changes the relationships.
6251	Paula H NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1paula_h_nde.html	My passion for relating to others, feeling/reading energy, remaining open to things
6258	Chris V NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1chris_v_nde.html	Every relationship with every other person I come into contact with has changed.
6259	Maggy C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1maggy_c_nde.html	I have always felt like a visitor here. I see a lot of illusion governing society. People seem to be wound up in false things - power, materialism. None of it seems worth pursuing to me. I love very easily and the love lasts, even if the life-partnerships do not.

6356	Mary H NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1mary_h_nde.html	I have not changed into a perfect person, I was pretty bitter after the wreck, just because the guy who did this to me, plead not guilty all the way, as if he didnt cause these injuries to me, and was just a total jerk, and because he didn't have a prior record, he only served a month in jail after being sentenced to six. He quit paying me my restitution, my measly 38,000.00 dollars. I was pretty bitter of that. But I just had the sixth year anniversary of my death, and I feel like I'm letting go of all my hate towards the guy who ruined my life, and the numerous

They think I am mentally ill only because I shared my NDE. They dragged my child into this mess and I have NO family, holidays, etc. I lost most of my friends and I went from a pillar of the community to a laughing stock. My husband will not let me speak of this in a support group and I really do not think he believes what happened was a NDE. He thinks it was drugs in the recovery room. 6428	Chantal L NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1chantal_l_nde.html	You know, it is all a matter of vibrations. Right after you go through this experience, your vibrations are so high, that you cannot be exposed to violence or lies. You are filled with love. But then the vibrations slow down bit by bit and you start re-integrating this world. All of a sudden you become insensitized to violence again. You no longer recognize truth from falsehood. That was the sad part, losing the connection. All you are left with are the memories. Trying to regain that connection requires some work. I am still not fully there yet but I am confident that it is possible to live in this world without being at its vibrational level. Everything is vibration.

6563	Michael G NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1michael_g_nde_6563.html	My wife and I separated several years after this, in 2006. I have since remarried and my current relationship is with someone who accepts and believes that my experience was real. If nothing else, the experience has lead me to choose different life partners that I would have chosen previously.
6567	Carol V NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1carol_v_nde.html	Sure. I tolerate and love everyone. (well, almost everyone). Hey, I live in harmony with my husband(who is my polar opposite) for over 30+ years and, grow more and more in love, with each passing day. This truly is heavenly inspired. I taught my son to always acknowledge each and every person he encounters by looking into their eyes and really, really listening to what they have to say. He get's it (understands) too!!! We are all connected and we all just want to be acknowledged. That, is a specific result of my experience. Remembering that each and every one of us is special, a gift and that we are all CONNECTED!
6573	Trevor O NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1trevor_o_nde.html	I felt more of a connection to people. That sense of balance and unity are still with me.

			environments I don't have much contact with other people. I never feel lonely so never really experience any need to be involved with people. Whenever, I have tried to be involved with people I really don't feel comfortable. They mostly strike me as being overly involved in what they have, what they think they are going to get, and where they think they are going to get to û I find that I don't really resonate with that way of living.

When things have been made so tough for me by this person that either their death or my own seemed to be the only way, I fall back on this experience. The lessons and relationship I developed with Our Father and Christ, this person knows of and has done her worst to try and sever it over the last seven years (and counting). 7313	Jacqueline HW NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jacqueline_hw_nde.html	Absolutely yeas. My husband and I have a very strong mental connection. I am not as needy of his attention time or worthiness as I feel I used to be. I do understand that as much as we can love each other, at this point in time we need to allow each other to be free. I also have found a difference connection with Rhonda our tenant, who used to rent on our property in Australia, but has moved with us to New Zealand. Her path of being a christian all not be the same as my viewpoint is still for the purpose of love. I have found with all my friends that we really can love each other, regardless of different opinions.

6711	Mark S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1mark_s_nde.html	My Mother is my only standing family relationship remaining (of a brother, sister, father, uncle, 3-cousins I was in touch with). All my close friends died in a 4-year window (4). Still in contact with a few grade-school friends by phone (3 or so). For the most part I'm fully isolated. Part due to people trying to steal/impose harm for the 'kill' and part because I don't want others to see me at my weakest.
6730	Alan G NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1alan_g_nde.html	I have become much more supportive of others less fortunate than myself
6740	Susan T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1susan_t_nde.html	More loving, and put family first over business
6749	Anthony N NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1anthony_n_nde_6749.html	I don't like being around people. It's hard to be around people.
6758	Deborah W NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1deborah_w_nde.html	Everyday life seems pretty unimportant compared to what lies ahead for each and every one of us. I just want my children to learn this lesson. Those that either don't believe or don't want to listen or ask questions have been cut out of my life by God or the Universe - I'm not sure.
6764	Greg A NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1greg_a_nde.html	At the time of the NDE I was married, a few months after, my friend that had died that same year, came to me in a vision and took me to a place so I could see my wife at the time cheating on me with one of our best friends at the time. The vision was in complete detail, right down to the sounds and time. So I got a divorce soon after words. It was true to the point, exact the vision was.
6770	Rachel NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1rachel_nde.html	I appreciate everything and everyone more now, I am even more tolerant and understanding and feel positive feelings more fully.
6776	Karen R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1karen_r_nde_6776.html	I seem to look deeper inside people near me now, not so much the persona they attempt to display-and much more but I have to finish this up now.
6788	Kate B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1kate_b_nde_6788.html	I am able to work fearlessly with my psychiatrist now, where I held back before. I am bipolar in this life, but now I admit it instead of just dealing with the consequences of it.
6802	Garry R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1garry_r_nde.html	Prior to this experience I assumed everyone could move in and out of their bodies when the need arose. Afterwards I became more guarded and cautious about sharing these experiences with others.
6805	Bethany R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1bethany_r_nde.html	I know I'm going to have to answer for the way I treat people on earth in the afterlife

6836	Karin S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1karin_s_nde.html	I am now able to care for my self daily. I have not ben able to fallow most conversations. Now that I can. People think & talk about the strangest things. Where do I fit in this world?
6841	Patricia C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1patricia_c_nde_6841.html	I understand people better and left my ex eventually.
6846	Rhea T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1rhea_t_nde.html	This was a major life changing experience for me. I remember lying in bed so many nights wondering why I got to live, why was I here, WHY WHY WHY WHY.... so many WHY'S. A girl I worked with my age died in a car accident during my rehab. She was the only one who was killed and no one else was injured. I just wanted to know why I lived in such a horrible fall that no one can survive in, and why she died so fast.

6848	Joseph C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1joseph_c_nde_6848.html	As I said, right after it happened I cried for a good two hours, calling pretty much through my entire phone book, apologizing for hurting them/telling them how I loved them, depending on our relationship at the time.
6861	Loni C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1loni_c_nde.html	I got married, had kids and, wow, what didn't change with all that?

It made me aware I couldnt neccessarily trust other people with my experience.

6885	Sarah P NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1sarah_p_nde.html	I have that hope..a spark..cause of other things that have happened..that gives me energy to study books on afterlife. Signs, messages by Bonnie McEavy about her research of 10 yrs before she wrote her book..talks of things that I wouldn't of believed for a second if I hadn't experienced supernatural(or whatever word(s) one chooses to understand their lifes happenings) moments, but since I did have these in my life, I can feel happy with certain people's books, art, music etc but other people would be scared by them, bored perhaps, disinterested, even insultingly say they're Nuts! But mental issues are different than realities one has to experience to believe them! I just call them blessings...and I'm sensitive on jobs with co-workers because of these things.
6896	Joan LH NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1joan_lh_nde.html	It is REALLY hard for me to be superficial. I cannot play the social games of life. I like to have fun but for me, EVERYTHING ties into our spirituality - and that is annoying to many people. I've learned not to share everything i perceive, but all of my close friends are on consciously on a spiritual path. I don't have a lot of friends but the friends I do have are very close. People from my former religion really have a hard time understanding/accepting me.
6897	Petra W NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1petra_w_nde.html	I felt an even deeper separation between myself and my parents. I felt that my being was not understood, as a matter of fact, I felt my being could potentially even dangerous or even evil.

When a patient shows me a deformity, I often show them my dented hip, and they know I understand. I feel lucky to be able to walk. 7924	Dale B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1dale_b_nde.html	I am more of an introvert that would give away anything to someone that really seems to want it... I suppose that I still want material things but after I get them they don't seem so important as they once would have...

8010	Bobby R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1bobby_r_nde.html	I used to keep everyone distant, I didn't want to get close to anyone after the NDE and watched them die. Once I started to come to terms with it, I focus more on inviting people into my life and cherishing the moment. It just took nearly 30 years to get there.
8023	John M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1john_m_nde_8023.html	i would like to have a long-term relationship with a good woman in my life... to experience that before i pass... not just sex, but love and companionship in a very meaningful way... i would Iso like to put my 'Sensitivity to good use' too... help others in their journey
8024	Jeffrey C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jeffrey_c_nde_8024.html	I am not as gullible as I was. I find it hard to have a real significant relationship with people who are not headed to the reality I am currently at. In short, I can more easily see peoples motives and have trouble being friends with anyone whose motives are not pure.
8029	Robert N NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1robert_n_nde_8029.html	I am closer to my family more than ever. I have always loved them, but we are now all so close (my wife and two kids)and we all acknowledge a stronger spiritual connection.

			been intentionally trying to anger me. She wanted to know why I never got upset. I told her that 'someone loves me unconditionally so I thought I would try that on her.' She thought about that for a long while and then one day, became the one student to help keep all the other student in line. What an amazing affect God's love had on her! I share this because prior to that incident, I had very little patience for students like her and afterwards, I gained insight daily into why the student's behaved as they did, somehow understood what they needed and met that need in a way that I was totally blind to prior to that event. God gave insight I did not have as well as the compassion to see the students and others who may misbehave as hurting individuals.
8037	Bonnie M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1bonnie_m_nde_8037.html	I think I developed a kind of detachment from the things that other children cared about after the experience.
8050	Brenda C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1brenda_c_nde.html	I have no time for toxic family members. I no longer have a relationship with my parents, who gave my husband a horrible time during our crisis. I have an older friend who I treat as a mother. There are many loving people who need you, don't waste your time on those who don't appreciate you. Seek and give love, accept love, and reject abuse.
8054	Cathy A NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1cathy_a_nde.html	I had a rough relationship with my mother but from that time, I was less needy of her love and attention. I became more self contained which I probably needed from an emotional survival standpoint.
8055	Maria P NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1maria_p_nde.html	I know that we are all the same, that we all come from the same Source and that every single person's soul is pure Love. The body, the Ego may sometimes show differently but I know that each individual is on a different conscious level on earth and that they are experiencing life as they know best. Knowing this helps me filter all reactions, challenges, mine and others through the my heart first and secondly my head. I found myself to be more compassionate, understanding and patient. Also, I no longer take things personally.
8062	Jim Martin	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jim_m_nde.html	I believe we are within a very few years of proving and garnering wide acceptance to belief in a higher power
8071	Belinda K NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1belinda_k_nde.html	I am much deeper. Since I feel everything others think regarding emotions, I have to pretend to be 'stupid' lol. It is draining.
8078	Kohn A NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1kohn_a_nde.html	I make sure that my loved ones know how much I love and appreciate them.
8345	Sharon W NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1sharon_w_nde.html	I am nicer to strangers because you should try to make someone else's day better and be caught up and consumed with yourself. You get to heaven by deeds and I want to go back.
8909	Linda M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1linda_m_nde_8909.html	I am more understanding with family members instead of getting angry at their inability to understand that life exist after physical death.

8225	Debra H NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1debra_h_nde.html	Well, I was very young then (20) so it's hard to quantify if maturity and/or life experience in general have changed my relationships --as I said previously, I am still far more comfortable alone -- but I think I am a far less self-centered and loving and giving and tolerant person than I was then, and I attribute it to experiencing being in The Love.

I attribute this to my experience on the beach. But I can't be certain that it's not just a desire to be as unlike my abusive parents as I can be.

Like, am I worthy of love, etc. I'm not so hard on myself anymore. That is a big change actually, so thank you for asking that question. I've only just now realized that I am much more relaxed about the little things and I'm not so hard on myself and also, I don't care about seeking out worldly stuff. 8460	Jeri W NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jeri_w_nde.html	I've lost two dear partners, one to cancer, one to a motorcycle accident. While I grieved deeply both times, there was also a sense of being outside myself and watching, and a calmness, knowing what I know now vs what I didn't know as a child. I know everything will be ok. I know they aren't really 'gone;' they just aren't _here_. That somehow makes it ok. My father's funeral and my grandmother's, a friend from work, all of them gave me the same sensation... that I was grieving and yet disconnected, and not grieving as much as others might expect or feel appropriate. I'm more patient with people, and things that seemed big before are less important. I feel like if something doesn't happen or work out 'this time' that it's not the end-all of everything. I'm not blase but I don't hold everything in this dramatic, critical-to-life type importance any more. Sometimes I feel disconnected from others, not because I don't care but because I feel like I can't relate to how important unimportant things are to them. But overall I'm just more aware of and kinder to other people than I was before. I'm much quicker to assume there's a reason behind someone doing something that I judge in a negative manner and I'm more likely to be patient or forgiving. I still get mad etc. like everybody else. Just not as bad as I did, before.

8519	Robin H NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1robin_h_nde.html	I'll start with the good, I adore people in a way that I didn't before. I always cared about humanity and have incredible friends and family but the NDE made me love and appreciate them all the more! I want to hug everyone (I was a hand shaker prior to the NDE) the bad news is, the new me has put a huge strain on my marriage, my husband does not understand what I feel now, although I have tried to tell him about the NDE and how it changed me, but it doesn't matter. I have also become very sensitive to harsh words, even bright lights and sound, all of which annoys him.
8525	Laurie L NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1laurie_l_nde.html	I was in an abusive relationship at the time, and it caused me to become more confident and strong, so much so that I left that relationship more focused on improving my self esteem and assertiveness.
8532	Maggie S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1maggie_s_nde_8532.html	A lot of people that used to be in my life are no longer there.
8543	Michael L NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1michael_l_nde_8543.html	I searched my heart to find how I really felt about the people in my life, and became more focused on the people that I loved.
8545	James R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1james_r_nde_8545.html	I think I am closer to my friends and family now. I was going through a divorce at the time of my NDE and that was brutal.
8556	Evelyn D NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1evelyn_d_nde.html	I don't know because I was so young.
8559	Jeff H NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1jeff_h_nde.html	I was 7 when I had this experience. Certainly when I tried to talk about it, I felt less connected to the people who could not understand or believe me, but I got used to that and still feel a deep connection with them anyway. Relationships have been few and far between, and not as deep as I would like them to be. I've had quite a few one-sided relationships, and have made mistakes of my own. I don't really expect to find the closeness or the love that I long to, but I still keep looking for it.
8562	Richard G NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1richard_g_nde_8562.html	I don't judge people any more in general. We don't really know what kind of problems the other person has to go through.
8583	Daphne B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1daphne_b_nde.html	I have lost people out of my life including a best friend.

8594	Charles T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1charles_t_nde_8594.html	My wife and I are even closer.
8596	Anthony M NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1anthony_m_nde_8596.html	This renewed my faith in god in his watching over us. I was not as faithful before.
8597	Sharon T NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1sharon_t_nde.html	I better at sensing peoples feelings, and showing compassion.
8600	Van S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1van_s_nde.html	Relationship with wife was damaged.
8603	Douglas B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1douglas_b_nde.html	They have grown stronger and more meaningful. Every minute is a gift from God, and in 5 minutes everything in your world could be completely changed.

8718	Laurence B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1laurence_b_nde.html	I had some close friends that were freaked out by the change in me and when I started being open about it those friendships ended. I don't thing so much about the story of the experience but by the actually change in me. As I have learned to except my gift it has become stronger. I thing the feeling people get with that I can see things and even more so because what I see is a great positive thing.

8724	Telesa H NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1telesa_h_nde.html	We are so much closer than we were before and he has been my confidant...
8726	William R NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1william_r_nde_8726.html	Who knows how this influences relationships with friends or family. How would you ever know?
8728	Siri K NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1siri_k_nde.html	I really do believe that people taking advantage of me, using me as a counsellor and soulhealer already before I went to school are related to my open heart and all encompassing love brought out into the earthly world. Even my mother and father has quoted me the only one to understand them, and I accepted that for years and years until I withdraw and left them to find friends of their own age.
8744	June S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1june_s_nde.html	I have ended most relationships form before it happened.
8748	Kathleen B NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1kathleen_b_nde_8748.html	This was fifty years ago. I have grown. I have a great marriage and great friendships. My relationships then were not successful.
8753	Stanley S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1stanley_s_nde.html	I give things to others to make them happy, not for the reward of it. I am more open with my feelings to those I care about. The happiest time was with Judy. Best life. Marriage, stable marriage is the most important thing.
8765	Bernard J NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1bernard_j_nde.html	I am a better person and because of this my relationships with others has improved
8774	Natalie C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1natalie_c_nde.html	I remained loving throughout all abuses. I realise nothing lasts forever and people don't mean to be assholes

8854	Sarah S NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1sarah_s_nde_8854.html	I try so hard to be understanding and kind and keep in mind we all walk our own paths
8855	Elaine C NDE	https://www.nderf.org/Experiences/1elaine_c_nde_8855.html	Mostly, I have a no-nonsense attitude now. Life is too short to hold anything back, so I've lost some of my filter I held before. My relationships with extremely religious people are more strained because I don't believe in what they do, but they try to renew my faith in the Christian god anyway. It's also hard to look at my little brothers and sisters and tell them that death is nothingness, but it's good. It's hard to communicate it in a way that sounds hopeful.
